Wind Zone(s) for this property: Medium wind speed of 37 m/s

The wind zones are based on wind speed data specific to all building sites as outlined in NZS 3604:2011. Other factors such as topographic classes, site exposure and ground roughness determine the actual wind bracing demands and bracing elements required for the building.

The absence of flooding on the "Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding" map does not exclude the possibility of the site flooding, particularly from Overland Flow Paths which may be on other properties.

Exposure Zones

New Zealand Standard 3604:2011 classifies all properties in New Zealand into zones based on environmental features including wind, earthquake, snow load and exposure. These zones are relevant to building requirements, such as strength of buildings, materials that should be used and maintenance. All building sites are classified as being in Exposure Zones Extreme Sea Spray, B, C, or D, depending on the severity of exposure to wind driven salt.

This property is classified as: Zone D

High — Coastal areas with high risk of wind-blown sea-spray salt deposits. This is defined as within 500m of the sea including harbours, or 100m from tidal estuaries and sheltered inlets. The coastal area also includes all offshore islands including Waiheke Island, Great Barrier Island. Within each of the zones there are different environmental locations that require fittings and fixtures appropriate to its designation as outlined Tables 4.1 to 4.3 in NZS 3604:2011 being either "closed", "sheltered" or "exposed". For further information refer to NZS 3604:2011 Section 4 — Durability.

Dear Sir

DECISION ON AN APPLICATION FOR A SUBDIVISION RESOURCE CONSENT

Applicant: ALISTER and SONIA LINTON.

• Controlled Activity to SUBDIVIDE THREE RESIDENTIAL LOTS
Site: 11 COCKLE BAY ROAD, COCKLE BAY, HOWICK.
Legal Description: LOT 127 DP 16751
Zoning: Howick Residential 1(Operative Transitional Plan).
Residential Heritage 7(Proposed District Plan).
Proposal No: 15136.

I wish to advise that consent for the above application was granted on 26 August 1999 under delegated authority and pursuant to Sections 104, 105 & 108 of the Resource Management Act 1991 subject to compliance with the following conditions to the satisfaction of the Council:

Reserves Contribution

1. That pursuant to Section 36 of the Resource Management Act 1991, this consent (or any part thereof) shall not be exercised until such time as all charges in relation to the receiving, processing and granting of this Resource Consent are paid in full.
2. A reserves contribution of $18,225.00(including 12.5% GST) being 6%(plus GST) of two-thirds of the assessed market value for Lots 1, 2 and 3 is to be paid within two years or before the Council's certificate under Section 224 of the Act will be issued, whichever is the sooner. A copy of the report from Quotable Value New Zealand is attached.
3. That Lot 4 hereon be held as to three undivided one-third shares by the owners of Lots 1 to 3 hereon as tenants in common in the said shares and that individual Certificates of Title be issued in accordance therewith. See DLR's Letter A634725 attached

The Section 224(c) certificate will be issued by the Council when the above conditions are fulfilled and following advice of the LT plan number together with a copy of the Survey plan showing co-ordinates.

Advice Notes

1. Your deposit of $562.50 already paid has been deducted from the total costs.
2. In addition to the consent charge for the above subdivision, and further pursuant to Section 36(1)(c) of the Act, an administration charge relating to the release of the subdivision will be applicable as fixed by determining all reasonable and actual costs incurred by the Council. The applicant will be advised of the charges as they fall due.

Reasons for the Decision

1. This subdivision consent has been granted on the basis of the current Land Use Consent dated 13 June 1997.
2. The adverse effects from the proposal have been dealt with at earlier stages of consent
3. The proposal complies with the density exemption outlined in Rule 13.11.1.4 of the Proposed Manukau District Plan
4. The application merits a consent pursuant to Sections 104 & 105 of the Resource Management Act 1991 and satisfies the rules of the Operative Transitional District Plan for Howick and the Manukau Proposed District Plan.
5. Granting this consent will not be contrary to the objectives and policies of either the Operative Transitional District Plan or the Proposed District Plan.
6. Any adverse effects or impact on the environment as a result of this subdivision will be no more than minor.

Right of Objection

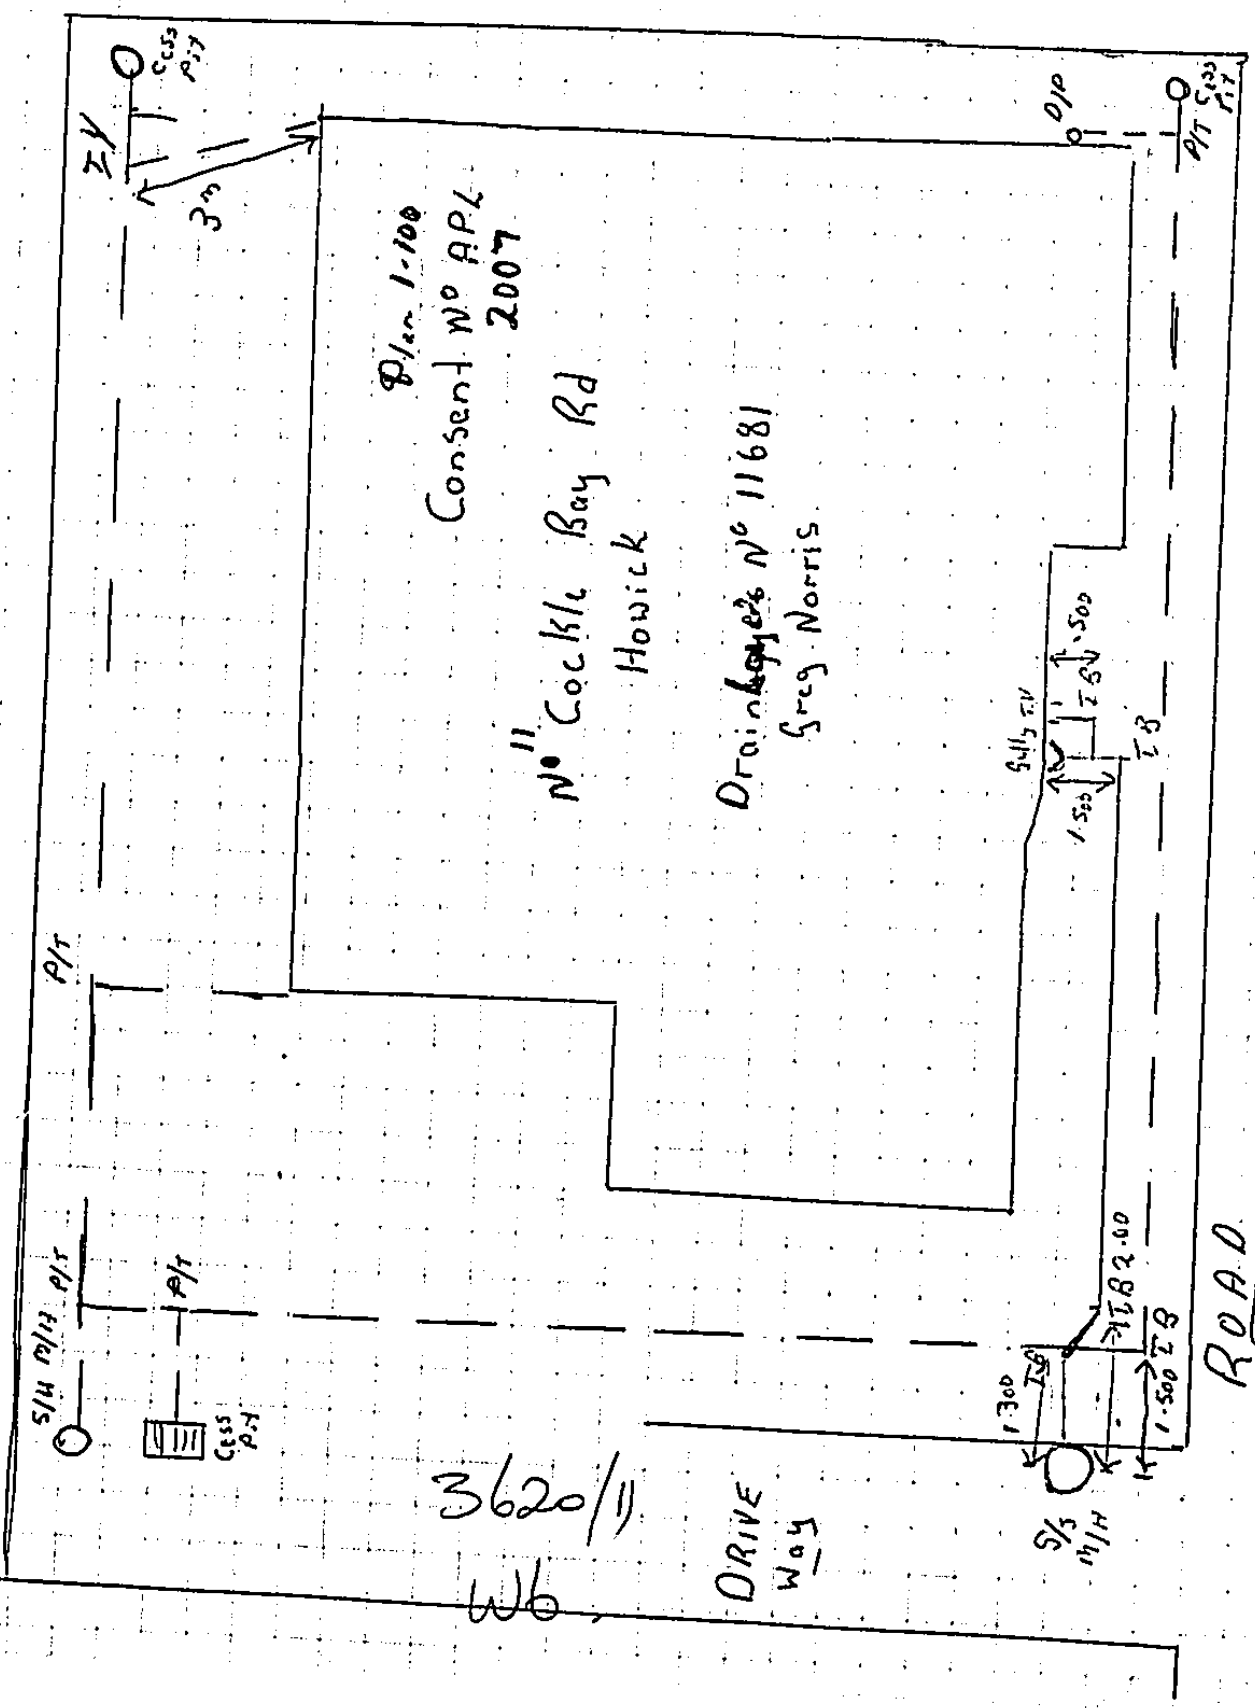

Within 15 working days of receipt of this decision (commencement date stamped below) you may lodge an objection to the decision pursuant to Section 357(2) of the Resource Management Act 1991. 3.4 Interpretation

- (1) If there is more than one vendor or purchaser, the liability of the vendors or of the purchasers, as the case may be, is joint and several.
- (2) Where the purchaser executes this agreement with provision for a nominee, or as agent for an undisclosed or disclosed but unidentified principal, or on behalf of a company to be formed, the purchaser shall at all times remain liable for all obligations on the part of the purchaser.

4.0 Deposit

- 4.1 The purchaser shall pay the deposit to the vendor's licensed real estate agent immediately on the completion of the auction or, where the property has been sold prior to, or subsequent to, the auction, on the execution of this agreement by both parties, time being of the essence.
- 4.2 If the deposit is not paid as set out in subclause 4.1, the vendor may cancel this agreement by serving notice of cancellation on the purchaser.
- 4.3 The deposit shall be in part payment of the purchase price.
- 4.4 If the property is a unit title, the person to whom the deposit is paid shall hold it as a stakeholder until:
 - (1) a pre-settlement disclosure statement, certified correct by the body corporate, under section 147 of the Unit Titles Act 2010 and an additional disclosure statement under section 148 of the Unit Titles Act 2010 (if requested by the purchaser within the time prescribed in section 148(2)) have been provided to the purchaser by the vendor within the times prescribed in those sections or otherwise the purchaser has given notice under section 149(2) of the Unit Titles Act 2010 to postpone the settlement date until after the disclosure statements have been provided; or
 - (2) the purchaser, having the right to cancel this agreement pursuant to section 151(2) of the Unit Titles Act 2010, has cancelled this agreement pursuant to that section, or has waived the right to cancel by giving notice to the vendor, or by completing settlement of the purchase.

5.0 Possession and Settlement

Possession

- 5.1 Unless particulars of a tenancy are included in this agreement, the property is sold with vacant possession and the vendor shall so yield the property on the settlement date.
- 5.2 If the property is sold with vacant possession, then subject to the rights of any tenants of the property, the vendor shall permit the purchaser or any person authorised by the purchaser in writing, upon reasonable notice:
 - (1) to enter the property on one occasion prior to the settlement date for the purposes of examining the property, chattels and fixtures which are included in the sale; and
 - (2) to re-enter the property on or before the settlement date to confirm compliance by the vendor with any agreement made by the vendor to carry out any work on the property and the chattels and the fixtures.
- 5.3 Possession shall be given and taken on the settlement date. Outgoings and incomings in respect of the settlement date are the responsibility of and belong to the vendor.
- 5.4 On the settlement date, the vendor shall make available to the purchaser keys to all exterior doors that are locked by key, electronic door openers to all doors that are opened electronically, and the keys and/or security codes to any alarms. The vendor does not have to make available keys, electronic door openers, and security codes where the property is tenanted and these are held by the tenant.

Settlement

- 5.5 The vendor shall prepare, at the vendor's own expense, a settlement statement. The vendor shall tender the settlement statement to the purchaser or the purchaser's lawyer a reasonable time prior to the settlement date.
- 5.6 The purchaser's lawyer shall:
 - (1) within a reasonable time prior to the settlement date create a Landonline Workspace for the transaction, notify the vendor's lawyer of the dealing number allocated by LINZ, and prepare in that workspace a transfer instrument in respect of the property; and
 - (2) prior to settlement
 - (a) lodge in that workspace the tax information contained in the transferee's tax statement; and
 - (b) certify and sign the transfer instrument.
- 5.7 The vendor's lawyer shall:
 - (1) within a reasonable time prior to the settlement date prepare in that workspace all other electronic instruments required to confer title on the purchaser in terms of the vendor's obligations under this agreement; and
 - (2) prior to settlement
 - (a) lodge in that workspace the tax information contained in the transferor's tax statement; and
 - (b) have those instruments and the transfer instrument certified, signed and, where possible, pre-validated.
- 5.8 On the settlement date:
 - (1) the balance of the purchase price, interest and other moneys, if any, shall be paid by the purchaser in cleared funds or otherwise satisfied as provided in this agreement (credit being given for any amount payable by the vendor under subclause 5.12 or 5.14);
 - (2) the vendor's lawyer shall immediately thereafter:
 - (a) release or procure the release of the transfer instrument and the other instruments mentioned in subclause 5.7(1) so that the purchaser's lawyer can then submit them for registration;
 - (b) pay to the purchaser's lawyer the LINZ registration fees on all of the instruments mentioned in subclause 5.7(1), unless these fees will be invoiced to the vendor's lawyer by LINZ directly; and
 - (c) deliver to the purchaser's lawyer any other documents that the vendor must provide to the purchaser on settlement in terms of this agreement.
- 5.9 All obligations under subclause 5.8 are interdependent.
- 5.10 The parties shall complete settlement by way of remote settlement, provided that where payment by bank cheque is permitted under the PLS Guidelines, payment may be made by the personal delivery of a bank cheque to the vendor's lawyer's office, so long as it is accompanied by the undertaking from the purchaser's lawyer required by those Guidelines.

Last Minute Settlement

- 5.11 If due to the delay of the purchaser, settlement takes place between 4:00 pm and 5:00 pm on the settlement date ("last minute settlement"), the purchaser shall pay the vendor:
 - (1) one day's interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the portion of the purchase price paid in the last minute settlement; and
 - (2) if the day following the last minute settlement is not a working day, an additional day's interest (calculated in the same manner) for each day until, but excluding, the next working day.

Purchaser Default: Late Settlement

- 5.12 If any portion of the purchase price is not paid upon the due date for payment, then, provided that the vendor provides reasonable evidence of the vendor's ability to perform any obligation the vendor is obliged to perform on that date in consideration for such payment:
- (1) the purchaser shall pay to the vendor interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the portion of the purchase price so unpaid for the period from the due date for payment until payment ("the default period"); but nevertheless, this stipulation is without prejudice to any of the vendor's rights or remedies including any right to claim for additional expenses and damages. For the purposes of this subclause, a payment made on a day other than a working day or after the termination of a working day shall be deemed to be made on the next following working day and interest shall be computed accordingly; and
 - (2) the vendor is not obliged to give the purchaser possession of the property or to pay the purchaser any amount for remaining in possession, unless this agreement relates to a tenanted property, in which case the vendor must elect either to:
 - (a) account to the purchaser on settlement for incomings in respect of the property which are payable and received during the default period, in which event the purchaser shall be responsible for the outgoings relating to the property during the default period; or
 - (b) retain such incomings in lieu of receiving interest from the purchaser pursuant to subclause 5.12(1).
- 5.13 Where subclause 5.12(1) applies and the parties are unable to agree upon any amount claimed by the vendor for additional expenses and damages:
- (1) an interim amount shall on settlement be paid to a stakeholder by the purchaser until the amount payable is determined;
 - (2) the interim amount must be a reasonable sum having regards to all of the circumstances;
 - (3) if the parties cannot agree on the interim amount, the interim amount shall be determined by an experienced property lawyer appointed by the parties. The appointee's costs shall be met equally by the parties. If the parties cannot agree on the appointee, the appointment shall be made on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society;
 - (4) the stakeholder shall lodge the interim amount on interest-bearing call deposit with a bank registered under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 in the joint names of the vendor and the purchaser;
 - (5) the interest earned on the interim amount net of any withholding tax and any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges shall follow the destination of the interim amount;
 - (6) the amount determined to be payable shall not be limited by the interim amount; and
 - (7) if the parties cannot agree on a stakeholder, the interim amount shall be paid to a stakeholder nominated on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society.

Vendor Default: Late Settlement or Failure to Give Possession

- 5.14 (1) For the purposes of this subclause 5.14:
- (a) the default period means:
 - (i) in subclause 5.14(2), the period from the settlement date until the date when the vendor is able and willing to provide vacant possession and the purchaser takes possession; and
 - (ii) in subclause 5.14(3), the period from the date the purchaser takes possession until the date when settlement occurs; and
 - (iii) in subclause 5.14(5), the period from the settlement date until the date when settlement occurs; and
 - (b) the vendor shall be deemed to be unwilling to give possession if the vendor does not offer to give possession.
- (2) If this agreement provides for vacant possession but the vendor is unable or unwilling to give vacant possession on the settlement date, then, provided that the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement:
- (a) The vendor shall pay the purchaser, at the purchaser's election, either:
 - (i) compensation for any reasonable costs incurred for temporary accommodation for persons and storage of chattels during the default period; or
 - (ii) an amount equivalent to interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the entire purchase price during the default period; and
 - (b) the purchaser shall pay the vendor an amount equivalent to the interest earned or which would be earned on overnight deposits lodged in the purchaser's lawyer's trust bank account on such portion of the purchase price (including any deposit) as is payable under this agreement on or by the settlement date but remains unpaid during the default period less:
 - (i) any withholding tax; and
 - (ii) any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges; and
 - (iii) any interest payable by the purchaser to the purchaser's lender during the default period in respect of any mortgage or loan taken out by the purchaser in relation to the purchase of the property.
- (3) If this agreement provides for vacant possession and the vendor is able and willing to give vacant possession on the settlement date, then, provided the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement, the purchaser may elect to take possession in which case the vendor shall not be liable to pay any interest or other moneys to the purchaser but the purchaser shall pay the vendor the same amount as that specified in subclause 5.14(2)(b) during the default period. A purchaser in possession under this subclause 5.14(3) is a licensee only.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause 5.14(3), the purchaser may elect not to take possession when the purchaser is entitled to take it. If the purchaser elects not to take possession, the provisions of subclause 5.14(2) shall apply as though the vendor were unable or unwilling to give vacant possession on the settlement date.
- (5) If this agreement provides for the property to be sold tenanted then, provided that the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement, the vendor shall on settlement account to the purchaser for incomings which are payable and received in respect of the property during the default period less the outgoings paid by the vendor during that period. Apart from accounting for such incomings, the vendor shall not be liable to pay any other moneys to the purchaser but the purchaser shall pay the vendor the same amount as that specified in subclause 5.14(2)(b) during the default period.
- (6) The provisions of this subclause 5.14 shall be without prejudice to any of the purchaser's rights or remedies including any right to claim for any additional expenses and damages suffered by the purchaser.
- (7) Where the parties are unable to agree upon any amount payable under this subclause 5.14:
- (a) an interim amount shall on settlement be paid to a stakeholder by the party against whom it is claimed until the amount payable is determined;
 - (b) the interim amount shall be the lower of:
 - (i) the amount claimed; or
 - (ii) an amount equivalent to interest at the interest rate for late settlement for the relevant default period on such portion of the purchase price (including any deposit) as is payable under this agreement on or by the settlement date.
 - (c) the stakeholder shall lodge the interim amount on interest-bearing call deposit with a bank registered under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 in the joint names of the vendor and the purchaser;
 - (d) the interest earned on the interim amount net of any withholding tax and any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges shall follow the destination of the interim amount;
 - (e) the amount determined to be payable shall not be limited by the interim amount; and
 - (f) if the parties cannot agree on a stakeholder the interim amount shall be paid to a stakeholder nominated on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society.

Deferment of Settlement and Possession

- 5.15 If
- (1) this is an agreement for the sale by a commercial on-seller of a household unit; and
 - (2) a code compliance certificate has not been issued by the settlement date in relation to the household unit,
- then, unless the parties agree otherwise (in which case the parties shall enter into a written agreement in the form (if any) prescribing by the Building (Forms) Regulations 2004), the settlement date, shall be deferred to the fifth working day following the date upon which the vendor has given the purchaser notice that the code compliance certificate has been issued (which notice must be accompanied by a copy of the certificate).
- 5.16 In every case, if neither party is ready, willing, and able to settle on the settlement date, the settlement date shall be deferred to the third working day following the date upon which one of the parties gives notice it has become ready, willing, and able to settle.
- 5.17 If
- (1) the property is a unit title;
 - (2) the settlement date is deferred pursuant to either subclause 5.15 or subclause 5.16; and
 - (3) the vendor considers on reasonable grounds that an extension of time is necessary or desirable in order for the vendor to comply with the warranty by the vendor in subclause 11.2(3),

- (4) then the vendor may extend the settlement date:
- where there is a deferment of the settlement date pursuant to subclause 5.15, to the tenth working day following the date upon which the vendor gives the purchaser notice that the code compliance certificate has been issued, provided the vendor gives notice of the extension to the purchaser no later than the second working day after such notice; or
 - where there is a deferment of the settlement date pursuant to subclause 5.16, to the tenth working day following the date upon which one of the parties gives notice that it has become ready, willing, and able to settle, provided the vendor gives notice of the extension to the purchaser no later than the second working day after such notice.

New Title Provision

- 5.18 (1) Where
- the transfer of the property is to be registered against a new title yet to be issued; and
 - a search copy, as defined in section 60 of the Land Transfer Act 2017, of that title is not obtainable by the tenth working day prior to the settlement date,
- then, unless the purchaser elects that settlement shall still take place on the agreed settlement date, the settlement date shall be deferred to the tenth working day following the date on which the vendor has given the purchaser notice that a search copy is obtainable.
- (2) Subclause 5.18(1) shall not apply where it is necessary to register the transfer of the property to enable a plan to deposit and title to the property to issue.

6.0 Residential Land Withholding Tax

- 6.1 If the vendor does not have a conveyancer or the vendor and the purchaser are associated persons, then:
- the vendor must provide the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer, on or before the second working day before the due date for payment of the first residential land purchase amount payable under this agreement, with:
 - sufficient information to enable the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer to determine to their reasonable satisfaction whether section 54C of the Tax Administration Act 1994 applies to the sale of the property; and
 - if the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer determines to their reasonable satisfaction that section 54C of the Tax Administration Act 1994 does apply, all of the information required by that section and either an RLWT certificate of exemption in respect of the sale or otherwise such other information that the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer may reasonably require to enable the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer to determine to their reasonable satisfaction the amount of RLWT that must be withheld from each residential land purchase amount;
 - the vendor shall be liable to pay any costs reasonably incurred by the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer in relation to RLWT, including the cost of obtaining professional advice in determining whether there is a requirement to withhold RLWT and the amount of RLWT that must be withheld, if any; and
 - any payments payable by the purchaser on account of the purchase price shall be deemed to have been paid to the extent that:
 - RLWT has been withheld from those payments by the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer as required by the RLWT rules; and
 - any costs payable by the vendor under subclause 6.1(2) have been deducted from those payments by the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer.
- 6.2 If the vendor does not have a conveyancer or the vendor and the purchaser are associated persons and if the vendor fails to provide the information required under subclause 6.1(1), then the purchaser may:
- defer the payment of the first residential land purchase amount payable under this agreement (and any residential land purchase amount that may subsequently fall due for payment) until such time as the vendor supplies that information; or
 - on the due date for payment of that residential land purchase amount, or at any time thereafter if payment has been deferred by the purchaser pursuant to this subclause and the vendor has still not provided that information, treat the sale of the property as if it is being made by an offshore RLWT person where there is a requirement to pay RLWT.
- 6.3 If pursuant to subclause 6.2 the purchaser treats the sale of the property as if it is being made by an offshore RLWT person where there is a requirement to pay RLWT, the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer may:
- make a reasonable assessment of the amount of RLWT that the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer would be required by the RLWT rules to withhold from any residential land purchase amount if the sale is treated in that manner; and
 - withhold that amount from any residential land purchase amount and pay it to the Commissioner as RLWT.
- 6.4 Any amount withheld by the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer pursuant to subclause 6.3 shall be treated as RLWT that the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer is required by the RLWT rules to withhold.
- 6.5 The purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer shall give notice to the vendor a reasonable time before payment of any sum due to be paid on account of the purchase price of:
- the costs payable by the vendor under subclause 6.1(2) that the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer intends to deduct; and
 - the amount of RLWT that the purchaser or the purchaser's conveyancer intends to withhold.

7.0 Risk and insurance

- 7.1 The property and chattels shall remain at the risk of the vendor until possession is given and taken.
- 7.2 If, prior to the giving and taking of possession, the property is destroyed or damaged, and such destruction or damage has not been made good by the settlement date, then the following provisions shall apply:
- if the destruction or damage has been sufficient to render the property untenable and it is untenable on the settlement date, the purchaser may:
 - complete the purchase at the purchase price, less a sum equal to any insurance moneys received or receivable by or on behalf of the vendor in respect of such destruction or damage, provided that no reduction shall be made to the purchase price if the vendor's insurance company has agreed to reinstate for the benefit of the purchaser to the extent of the vendor's insurance cover; or
 - cancel this agreement by serving notice on the vendor in which case the vendor shall return to the purchaser immediately the deposit and any other moneys paid by the purchaser, and neither party shall have any right or claim against the other arising from this agreement or its cancellation;
 - if the property is not untenable on the settlement date the purchaser shall complete the purchase at the purchase price less a sum equal to the amount of the diminution in value of the property which, to the extent that the destruction or damage to the property can be made good, shall be deemed to be equivalent to the reasonable cost of reinstatement or repair;
 - in the case of a property zoned for rural purposes under an operative District Plan, damage to the property shall be deemed to have rendered the property untenable where the diminution in value exceeds an amount equal to 20% of the purchase price; and
 - if the amount of the diminution in value is disputed, the parties shall follow the same procedure as that set out in subclause 10.4 for when an amount of compensation is disputed.
- 7.3 The purchaser shall not be required to take over any insurance policies held by the vendor.

8.0 Title, boundaries and requisitions

- 8.1 The vendor shall not be bound to point out the boundaries of the property except that on the sale of a vacant residential lot which is not limited as to parcels the vendor shall ensure that all boundary markers required by the Cadastral Survey Act 2002 and any related rules and regulations to identify the boundaries of the property are present in their correct positions at the settlement date.
- 8.2 The purchaser is deemed to have accepted the vendor's title to the property and the purchaser may not make any requisitions or objections as to title.
- 8.3 Except as provided by sections 36 to 42 of the Contract and Commercial Law Act 2017, no error, omission, or misdescription of the property or the title shall enable the purchaser to cancel this agreement but compensation, if claimed by notice before settlement in accordance with subclause 10.1 but not otherwise, shall be made or given as the case may require.
- 8.4 The vendor shall not be liable to pay for or contribute towards the expense of erection or maintenance of any fence between the property and any contiguous land of the vendor but this proviso shall not enure for the benefit of any subsequent purchaser of the contiguous land; and the vendor shall be entitled to require the inclusion of a fencing covenant to this effect in any transfer of the property.

9.0 Vendor's warranties and undertakings

- 9.1 The vendor warrants and undertakes that at the date of this agreement the vendor has not:
- received any notice or demand and has no knowledge of any requisition or outstanding requirement:
 - from any local or government authority or other statutory body; or
 - under the Resource Management Act 1991; or
 - from any tenant of the property; or
 - from any other party; or
 - given any consent or waiver, which directly or indirectly affects the property and which has not been disclosed in writing to the purchaser.

9.2 The vendor warrants and undertakes that at settlement:

- (1) The chattels and all plant, equipment, systems or devices which provide any services or amenities to the property, including, without limitation, security, heating, cooling, or air-conditioning, are delivered to the purchaser in reasonable working order, but in all other respects in their state of repair as at the date of this agreement (fair wear and tear excepted) but failure so to deliver them shall only create a right of compensation.
- (2) All electrical and other installations on the property are free of any charge whatsoever.
- (3) There are no arrears of rates, water rates or charges outstanding on the property.
- (4) Where an allowance has been made by the vendor in the settlement statement for incomings receivable, the settlement statement correctly records those allowances including, in particular, the dates up to which the allowances have been made.
- (5) Where the vendor has done or caused or permitted to be done on the property any works:
 - (a) any permit, resource consent, or building consent required by law was obtained; and
 - (b) to the vendor's knowledge, the works were completed in compliance with those permits or consents; and
 - (c) where appropriate, a code compliance certificate was issued for those works.
- (6) Where under the Building Act, any building on the property sold requires a compliance schedule:
 - (a) the vendor has fully complied with any requirements specified in any compliance schedule issued by a territorial authority under the Building Act in respect of the building;
 - (b) the building has a current building warrant of fitness; and
 - (c) the vendor is not aware of any reason, that the vendor has not disclosed in writing to the purchaser, which would prevent a building warrant of fitness from being supplied to the territorial authority when the building warrant of fitness is next due.
- (7) Since the date of this agreement, the vendor has not given any consent or waiver which directly or indirectly affects the property.
- (8) Any notice or demand received by the vendor, which directly or indirectly affects the property, after the date of this agreement:
 - (a) from any local or government authority or other statutory body; or
 - (b) under the Resource Management Act 1991; or
 - (c) from any tenant of the property; or
 - (d) from any other party, has been delivered forthwith by the vendor to either the purchaser or the purchaser's lawyer, unless the vendor has paid or complied with such notice or demand. If the vendor fails to so deliver or pay the notice or demand, the vendor shall be liable for any penalty incurred.
- (9) Any chattels included in the sale are the unencumbered property of the vendor.

9.3 If the property is or includes part only of a building, the warranty and undertaking in subclause 9.2(6) does not apply. Instead the vendor warrants and undertakes at the date of this agreement that, where under the Building Act the building of which the property forms part requires a compliance schedule:

- (1) to the vendor's knowledge, there has been full compliance with any requirements specified in any compliance schedule issued by a territorial authority under the Building Act in respect of the building;
- (2) the building has a current building warrant of fitness; and
- (3) the vendor is not aware of any reason, that the vendor has not disclosed in writing to the purchaser, which would prevent a building warrant of fitness from being supplied to the territorial authority when the building warrant of fitness is next due.

9.4 The vendor warrants and undertakes that on or immediately after settlement:

- (1) If the water and wastewater charges are determined by meter, the vendor will have the water meter read and will pay the amount of the charge payable pursuant to that reading; but if the water supplier will not make special readings, the water and wastewater charges shall be apportioned.
- (2) Any outgoings included in the settlement statement are paid in accordance with the settlement statement and, where applicable, to the dates shown in the settlement statement, or will be so paid immediately after settlement.
- (3) The vendor will give notice of sale in accordance with the Local Government (Rating) Act 2002 to the territorial authority and regional council in whose district the land is situated and will also give notice of the sale to every other authority that makes and levies rates or charges on the land and to the supplier of water.
- (4) Where the property is a unit title, the vendor will notify the body corporate in writing of the transfer of the property and the name and address of the purchaser.

9.5 If the purchaser has not validly cancelled this agreement, the breach of any warranty or undertaking contained in this agreement does not defer the obligation to settle but that obligation shall be subject to the rights of the purchaser at law or in equity, including any rights under subclause 8.3 and any right of equitable set-off.

10.0 Claims for compensation

10.1 If the purchaser claims a right to compensation either under subclause 8.3 or for an equitable set-off:

10.3 If the amount of compensation is agreed, it shall be deducted on settlement.

- (4) the stakeholder shall lodge the interim amount on interest-bearing call deposit with a bank registered under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 in the joint names of the vendor and the purchaser;

- (6) the amount of compensation determined to be payable shall not be limited by the interim amount; and
- (7) if the parties cannot agree on a stakeholder, the interim amount shall be paid to a stakeholder nominated on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society.

 - (3) The vendor may give a settlement notice with a notice under this subclause.
 - (4) For the purpose of this subclause a deposit is not an instalment.
- 12.4 If the purchaser does not comply with the terms of the settlement notice served by the vendor then, subject to subclause 12.1(3):

 - (a) sue the purchaser for specific performance; or

 - (2) Where the vendor is entitled to cancel this agreement, the entry by the vendor into a conditional or unconditional agreement for the resale of the property or any part thereof shall take effect as a cancellation of this agreement by the vendor if this agreement has not previously been cancelled and such resale shall be deemed to have occurred after cancellation.
 - (3) The damages claimable by the vendor under subclause 12.4(1)(b)(ii) shall include all damages claimable at common law or in equity and shall also include (but shall not be limited to) any loss incurred by the vendor on any bona fide resale contracted within one year from the date by which the purchaser should have settled in compliance with the settlement notice. - (1) sue the vendor for specific performance; or
 - (2) cancel this agreement by notice and require the vendor forthwith to repay to the purchaser any deposit and any other money paid on account of the purchase price and interest on such sum(s) at the interest rate for late settlement from the date or dates of payment by the purchaser until repayment.
- 12.6 The party serving a settlement notice may extend the term of the notice for one or more specifically stated periods of time and thereupon the term of the settlement notice shall be deemed to expire on the last day of the extended period or periods and it shall operate as though this clause stipulated the extended period(s) of notice in lieu of the period otherwise applicable; and time shall be of the essence accordingly. An extension may be given either before or after the expiry of the period of the notice.
- 12.7 Nothing in this clause shall preclude a party from suing for specific performance without giving a settlement notice.
- 12.8 A party who serves a settlement notice under this clause shall not be in breach of an essential term by reason only of that party's failure to be ready and able to settle upon the expiry of that notice.

13.0 Non-merger

The vendor shall pay the agent's charges including GST for effecting such sale.
- 14.2 The agent may provide statistical data relating to the sale to the Real Estate Institute of New Zealand Incorporated.

15.0 Goods and Services Tax

- 15.1 If this agreement provides for the purchaser to pay (in addition to the purchase price stated without GST) any GST which is payable in respect of the supply made under this agreement then:
- (1) the purchaser shall pay to the vendor the GST which is so payable in one sum on the GST date;
 - (2) where the GST date has not been inserted in the Conditions of Sale the GST date shall be the settlement date;

 - (5) any sum referred to in this clause is included in the moneys payable by the purchaser on settlement pursuant to subclause 5.8(1).
- 15.2 If the supply under this agreement is a taxable supply, the vendor will deliver a tax invoice to the purchaser on or before the GST date or such earlier date as the purchaser is entitled to delivery of an invoice under the GST Act.
- 15.3 The vendor warrants that any dwelling and curtilage or part thereof supplied on sale of the property are not a supply to which section 5(16) of the GST Act applies.
- 15.4
- (1) Without prejudice to the vendor's rights and remedies under subclause 15.1 where any GST is not paid to the vendor on or within one month of the GST date, then whether or not the purchaser is in possession, the vendor may immediately give notice to the purchaser calling up any unpaid balance of the purchase price, which shall upon service of the notice fall immediately due and payable.

- 16.4 If GST is chargeable on the supply under this agreement at 0% pursuant to section 11(1)(mb) of the GST Act, then on or before settlement the purchaser will provide the vendor with the recipient's name, address, and registration number if any of those details are not included in Schedule 1 or they have altered.
- 16.5 If any of the particulars stated by the purchaser in Schedule 1 should alter between the date of this agreement and settlement, the purchaser shall notify the vendor of the altered particulars and of any other relevant particulars in Schedule 1 which may not have been completed by the purchaser as soon as practicable and in any event no later than two working days before settlement. The purchaser warrants that any altered or added particulars will be correct as at the date of the purchaser's notification. If the GST treatment of the supply under this agreement should be altered as a result of the altered or added particulars, the vendor shall prepare and deliver to the purchaser or the purchaser's lawyer an amended settlement statement if the vendor has already tendered a settlement statement, and a credit note or a debit note, as the case may be, if the vendor has already issued a tax invoice.
- 16.6 If
- (1) the particulars in Schedule 1 state that part of the property is being used as a principal place of residence at the date of this agreement; and
 - (2) that part is still being so used at the time of the supply under this agreement,
- the supply of that part will be a separate supply in accordance with section 5(15)(a) of the GST Act.
- 16.7 If
- (1) the particulars stated in Schedule 1 indicate that the recipient intends to use part of the property as a principal place of residence by the recipient or a person associated with the recipient under section 2A(1)(c) of the GST Act; and
 - (2) that part is the same part as that being used as a principal place of residence at the time of the supply under this agreement,
- then the references in subclauses 16.3 and 16.4 to "the property" shall be deemed to mean the remainder of the property excluding that part and the references to "the supply under this agreement" shall be deemed to mean the supply under this agreement of that remainder.

This advice is in addition to and does not take precedence over the Purchaser's rights under standard Clause 8.0 or any other clause in the contract.

22.0 Pre Auction

22.0 Pre auction offer conditions

22.1 This agreement is conditional upon the vendor not receiving a bid at the auction at a purchase price higher than the purchase price set out in this agreement. If no higher bid is received, this agreement shall be unconditional. If a higher bid is received, this agreement shall be cancelled.

22.2 The vendor agrees that the date of the auction shall be brought forward and held before 5pm on the fourth working day after the date this agreement is signed by both parties but no earlier than 11am on the third working day after this agreement is signed by both parties.

BEFORE BIDDING AT THE AUCTION

If you are the successful bidder or you sign this agreement before or after the auction this sale will be legally binding on you.

If you are the successful bidder, the auctioneer may sign the Memorandum of Contract on your behalf if you should fail or refuse to do so.

- It is recommended you seek professional advice before bidding or, if you sign this agreement before or after the auction, before signing. This is especially so if:
 - there are any doubts.
 - the purchaser is not a New Zealand citizen. There are strict controls on the purchase of property in New Zealand by persons who are not New Zealand citizens.
 - property such as a hotel or a farm is being sold. The agreement is designed primarily for the sale of residential and commercial property.
 - the property is vacant land in the process of being subdivided or there is a new unit title or cross lease to be issued.
 - there is any doubt as to the position of the boundaries.
 - you wish to check the weathertightness and soundness of construction of any dwellings or other buildings on the land.
- Both parties may need to have customer due diligence performed on them by their lawyer or conveyancer in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 which is best done prior to the signing of this agreement.
- You should investigate the status of the property under the local Council's District Plan. The property and those around it may be affected by zoning and other planning provisions regulating their use and future development.
- You should investigate whether necessary permits, consents, and code compliance certificates have been obtained from the Council where building works have been carried out. This investigation can be assisted by obtaining a Land Information Memorandum (LIM) from the Council.
- You should check the title to the property because there is no right of objection or requisition.
- You should compare the title plans against the physical location of existing structures where the property is a unit title or cross lease. Structures or alterations to structures not shown on the plans may result in the title being defective.
- In the case of a unit title, before you enter into the agreement:
 - the vendor must provide you with a pre-contract disclosure statement under section 146 of the Unit Titles Act 2010;
 - you should check the minutes of the past meetings of the body corporate, enquire whether there are any issues affecting the units and/or the common property, check the body corporate's long term maintenance plan and enquire whether the body corporate has imposed or proposed levies for a long term maintenance fund or any other fund for the maintenance of, or remedial or other work to, the common property.
- Both parties should ensure the chattels list on the front page is accurate.
- You should ensure that you understand the GST position, and whether or not GST is payable in addition to the price at which you are bidding.
- Both parties should seek professional advice regarding the GST treatment of the transaction. This depends upon the GST information supplied by the parties and could change before settlement if that information changes.
- You should read the Conduct of Auction in clause 2.

THE ABOVE NOTES ARE NOT PART OF THIS AGREEMENT AND ARE NOT A COMPLETE LIST OF MATTERS WHICH ARE IMPORTANT IN CONSIDERING THE LEGAL CONSEQUENCES OF ENTERING A BID AT THE AUCTION.

PROFESSIONAL ADVICE SHOULD BE SOUGHT REGARDING THE EFFECT AND CONSEQUENCES OF BECOMING THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER AT THE AUCTION.

How to Buy at Auction

What is a Real Estate Auction?

A real estate auction is an open and transparent public offering of property at a predetermined date and time. It allows purchasers to register bids (offers) against each other, in the attempt to be the highest bidder. To allow the purchaser to satisfy themselves with the terms and conditions of the auction these are outlined in advance. Auctions are a cash and unconditional sale and both buyer and seller are bound by the terms in the documentation when a sale is achieved.

How do I prepare myself for an auction?

You will likely need to pre-arrange finance with a bank or lending institution and it is always recommended to provide a copy of the auction contract that the agent has given you, to your solicitor before the auction. Most auctions will require you to pay a 10% deposit which is required immediately after the 'fall of the hammer' so it is important that you have access to the funds to ensure you can pay this on the day. You may also want to talk to a building inspector, registered valuer or see the council regarding any renovations or works that have been undertaken on the property. Try to attend as many real estate auctions as possible prior to the one you intend to bid at, it will enable you to be much more comfortable with the procedure when it comes to your turn.

Do I need to register?

At Bayleys there is no formal registration required before you bid at auction. However, by law, you will have needed to have received a copy of the Approved Buyers Guide as set out by the Real Estate Agents Authority prior to bidding. You can obtain a copy from the salesperson representing the home you are intending to bid on.

What is a reserve price?

The reserve price is specified by the owner(s) of the property and must be in writing. It is the level at which the owners have instructed the auctioneer not to sell the property below. The reserve price is confidential between the owners of the property and the auctioneer. When bidding has exceeded the reserve price, the auctioneer will let the purchasers know by declaring the property 'on the market'. This means that the property will be sold to the highest bidder.

What happens if the bidding doesn't meet the reserve price?

In the first instance, it is likely that the auctioneer will 'pause' the auction and approach the highest bidder to let them know that the reserve price hasn't been met. The auctioneer will give the purchaser an opportunity to increase their bid to a level at which the owner may consider selling the property. If the level that the bid is increased to is acceptable to the owner, the auction will recommence at the level of the increased bid and the property will then be declared 'on the market' – the auctioneer will then seek any further bidding before selling the property. If the bid is not acceptable, the auction will still recommence at the level of the increased offer, however, the auctioneer will seek further bidding before the property is passed in (see below).

What happens if the property doesn't sell?

If the highest bid offered to the vendor in the auction room is not accepted then the property will be 'passed in' and the auction concluded. This will allow the vendor to consider any post auction offers which may or may not contain conditions.

What is a vendor bid?

Under law, the auctioneer can bid on behalf of the vendor at the auctioneer's discretion. Vendor bids must be clearly identified to purchasers as vendor bids and can only be placed below the level at which the owners have set their written reserve price. Vendor bids are most commonly used to start the bidding, if none of the purchasers choose to. Simply what the auctioneer is indicating is that the property is not for sale at the level of the vendor bid. At Bayleys, our owners are required to give a written undertaking that they will not bid, nor have a representative bid on their behalf at the auction, other than the Auctioneer.

Can the property be sold prior?

If the property is marketed by auction and the advertisements contains the words 'unless sold prior' or similar, then there is always the possibility that the vendor may sell earlier than the advertised auction date. Therefore, to help protect your interest, it is recommended that you inform the marketing agent who can then contact you should the vendor wish to sell earlier than advertised. If you submit an offer prior to the auction, you will be provided with a copy of our Pre-Auction Offer Procedure to sign and you will need to provide a 10% deposit cheque payable to our trust account. If the offer is not acceptable, the campaign will resume as planned and the cheque returned. If the offer is acceptable to the vendor, the auction date may be brought forward to an earlier date, using your offer as the start/reserve price. This price will remain confidential until the start of the auction. Note that the auction has not been stopped but brought forward.

Can you buy a home in New Zealand to live in?

- You have a New Zealand, Australian or Singaporean Permanent Resident visa and live in New Zealand.*
- You have a New Zealand Resident visa and live in New Zealand.*

*You have lived in New Zealand for at least 183 days in the past 12 months.

You must apply for consent to buy one home to live in if...

- You have a New Zealand Permanent Resident or Resident visa and do not live in New Zealand.*
- You have an Australian or Singaporean Permanent Resident visa and do not live in New Zealand.*

*To get consent you'll need to live in New Zealand, and if you stop living here, you'll have to sell.

You can't buy one home to live in if...

- You have a Temporary visa, such as a visitor, student, working holiday, or work visa (you don't have a Permanent Resident or Resident visa).

There are other ways you may be able to invest in property.

Check if you can buy

Visit the Ministry of Business, Innovation & Employment website at <https://www.newzealandnow.govt.nz/overseas>

What types of homes are affected?

These laws apply to homes that are classed as 'residential' or 'lifestyle' on the District Valuation Roll. You can check properties on websites, such as www.qv.co.nz, or ask the local council.

Everyone must make a 'Statement'

All buyers must complete a Residential Land Statement to say whether they are eligible to buy. Your conveyancer can help you do this.

If you must apply or cannot buy, it is especially important that you first talk to your conveyancer before you sign the sale and purchase agreement. If you need to sign it urgently, you can make the agreement conditional on the consent of the Overseas Investment Office.

If you need consent, but sign an unconditional agreement without it, you may face significant penalties. If you make a false statement, you could be fined up to $300,000.

Apply for consent

These rules are complex, and you will need the help of a New Zealand property lawyer. Visit the Overseas Investment Office at www.linz.govt.nz/oio to learn more.

Introduction

Buying or selling a home is one of the biggest financial commitments you will ever make. There are several relatively complicated stages to negotiate and there are a number of things to look out for.

When you are buying or selling residential property you should always have a written sale and purchase agreement. This is the legal document that forms the contract between the buyer and the seller.

This is a guide to the sale and purchase agreement that you will be asked to sign if you wish to buy or sell residential property.

This guide provides information about sale and purchase agreements, tells you where you can get more information, what to expect from a real estate agent¹ and what to do if there is a problem.

This guide only relates to the sale of residential property.

This guide is just that – guidance. You should not rely on it for legal advice. It's been prepared by the Real Estate Agents Authority (REAA), a Crown entity established by the Real Estate Agents Act 2008.

Whether you are a buyer or a seller, the agent must provide you with a copy of this guide before you sign a sale and purchase agreement, and ask you for written acknowledgement that you have received it. If you require more information, you can consult your lawyer. Information is also available on the REAA's website: www.reaa.govt.nz.

Why do I need a sale and purchase agreement?

A sale and purchase agreement provides certainty to both the buyer and the seller as it sets out in writing all the agreed terms and conditions. It is a legally binding contract.

Can I negotiate?

The seller and buyer can negotiate, through the agent, on price and conditions until they both reach agreement.

Important things to know:

- You should have a written sale and purchase agreement.
- Always read the sale and purchase agreement before signing it.
- Have your lawyer check the sale and purchase agreement before you sign it.
- Both the buyer and seller can negotiate changes to the price and conditions.
- A sale and purchase agreement is a legally binding contract.

The sale and purchase agreement

Your agent will probably use the Auckland District Law Society and Real Estate Institute of New Zealand form (the ADLS form).

Your sale and purchase agreement should include the following:

- The name(s) of the seller(s) and buyer(s).
- The address of the property.
- The type of title (freehold, leasehold etc.).
- The chattels that are to be sold with the property (e.g. whiteware, drapes, television aerial etc.).
- The price.

- The rate of interest that the buyer must pay on any overdue payments.
- Any deposit that the buyer must pay.
- Any conditions the buyer wants fulfilled before the contract is agreed.
- The date on which the agreement will become unconditional if there are conditions.
- The settlement date (the date the buyer pays the remainder of the amount for the property, usually the day when the buyer can move into the property).

Conditions in the document

The buyer will usually want to have some or all of the following conditions fulfilled before the contract is agreed:

- Title search – this is done by the buyer's lawyer to check who the legal owner of the property is and to see if anyone else has any claim over the property.
- Finance – this refers to the buyer arranging payment, normally a loan, by a specified date.
- Valuation report – normally required by a lender, this report is an estimate of the property's worth on the current market.
- Land Information Memorandum (LIM) report – provided by the local council, this report provides information on things such as rates, building permits and consents, drainage and planning.
- Building inspection report – these help determine how sound the building is and what might need to be repaired.
- Engineer's report – similar to the above but more focused on the section and structure of the property.
- Sale of another home – the buyer may need to sell their home in order to buy another.

General or standard clauses

A sale and purchase agreement also includes clauses that set out general obligations and conditions. It helps to understand what these mean as you will need to comply with them. Examples may include:

- Access rights – what access the buyer can have to inspect the property before settlement.
- Default by buyer – the buyer may have to compensate the seller e.g. interest payments.
- Default by the seller – the seller may have to compensate the buyer e.g. accommodation costs.
- Insurance – makes sure the property remains insured until the settlement date and outlining what will happen if any damage does occur.

Your lawyer will explain these clauses.

When does the buyer pay the deposit and the full amount?

When the seller and buyer have agreed on all aspects of the sale and purchase agreement, any deposit is usually paid to the real estate agent by the buyer. This money is initially held in the agent's trust account.

The agent usually takes their commission from the deposit when the contract becomes unconditional. This is agreed between the seller and the agent as set out in the agency agreement². The seller should make sure that the deposit is large enough to cover the agent's commission.

The buyer pays the remainder of the amount for the property on the day of settlement, usually through their lawyer. The settlement day is usually the date when the buyer can move into the property.

Before the sale and purchase agreement becomes unconditional and if the sale doesn't go ahead because some of the conditions haven't been met, the buyer may be entitled to have the deposit refunded in full.

However, once the offer becomes unconditional you won't be able to get your deposit back if you change your mind for any reason.

What is the difference between a conditional and an unconditional agreement?

- Conditional refers to the sale and purchase agreement having a set of conditions that are to be met, such as the buyer's current house being sold, a building inspection being carried out, or finance being secured.
- Unconditional refers to when all conditions in the sale and purchase agreement have been met and the transaction is ready to proceed to a change of ownership.

¹ Real estate agent or agent are general terms that refer to an agent, branch manager or salesperson.

² Refer to the Real Estate Agents Authority's New Zealand Residential Property Agency Agreement Guide

Can I cancel the agreement if I change my mind?

You cannot cancel a sale and purchase agreement just because you have had second thoughts about buying or selling the property concerned.

In general, once you have signed a sale and purchase agreement and the conditions set out in it have been met, you will have to go ahead with the sale/purchase of the property.

What can I expect from an agent?

The agent works for and is paid by the seller. The agent must therefore carry out the seller's instructions (as set out in the agency agreement) and act in the interests of the seller.

Agents also have clear responsibilities to buyers even though they are representing the seller.

When you are buying a property, ask the agent questions. Be specific about what you want to know.

All agents are bound by the Code of Professional Conduct and Client Care, issued by the REAA. Under the Code, agents have to deal fairly and honestly with all parties.

A copy of the Code of Professional Conduct and Client Care is available from www.reaa.govt.nz or by calling 0800 for REAA (0800 367 7322).

What if my agent or someone related to them wants to buy the property?

If your agent, or anyone related to them, wants to buy your property, they must get your written consent to do this.

More information on this situation can be found in the Conflict of Interest Information Sheet, available from www.reaa.govt.nz or by calling 0800 for REAA (0800 367 7322).

It is important to consult your lawyer throughout the buying and selling process.

Who pays the agent?

Real estate agents in New Zealand work on behalf of sellers and it is the sellers who pay the agents. An agent who is marketing a property on behalf of a seller cannot ask a buyer to pay for their services.

The agent is acting for the seller and does not have the same duty to a buyer as they do to the seller.

What is a buyers' agent?

Buyers' agents are common in some other countries. They are agents who are employed by buyers to locate properties and sometimes to negotiate purchases on the buyer's behalf. If you employ a buyers' agent you should still have a written agency agreement and will have to pay for their services.

More information on buyers' agents can be found in the Buyers' Agent Information Sheet, available from www.reaa.govt.nz or by calling 0800 for REAA (0800 367 7322).

What if there's a problem?

If you are concerned about the behaviour of an agent, you should discuss any concerns you have with the agent or their manager. Agents are required to have in-house complaints resolution procedures.

If this does not work or if you do not wish to go through this process, you can contact the REAA.

The REAA has a number of ways it can help with your concerns. This includes sending the agent a compliance advice letter, arranging alternative dispute resolution or processing the matter as a complaint. When you contact the REAA they will help you identify the best way of dealing with your concern.

More information on how the REAA can help you can be found at www.reaa.govt.nz or by calling 0800 for REAA (0800 367 7322).
